

NEW MAID GONE
AND $3,500 GEMS

"Joan Hooper" Had Excellent Letter, and Mrs. Olcott Didn't Know Until Too Late that Name on It Had Been Forged.

HAD RECORD AS A THIEF, POLICE SAY.

Defective Who Arrested Her Before on a Similar Charge Traces Her to Confederate, but Both Get Away.

Neglect to investigate the references of a maid employed two weeks ago has resulted in the loss of $3,500 to Mrs. Dudley Olcott, 34, who lives with her husband in the Dorchester apartments, at Seventy-first street and Sherman square. The maid, known to the police under the names of Sinclair and Cooper, has disappeared with jewels of that value.

She is very pretty and deft and soft spoken, this maid. To Mrs. Olcott she gave the name of Joan Hooper. Her drilling cookery account was delicious. She had a strong letter of reference bearing the name of a prominent citizen of East Orange. Mrs. Olcott has learned the signature was forged.

Joan Hooper was left alone in the apartments on Saturday night while Mr. and Mrs. Olcott went to the theatre. She was missed yesterday morning and so were the jewels.

Baron Lambermont, Belgian Mentor, Dead.

Baron Lambermont, Secretary-General of the Foreign Office, died to-day following a stroke of paralysis on Saturday. For about half a century the Baron had much to do with directing the foreign policy of Belgium.

Baron Lambermont's aged sister, who was living in the country, dropped dead early to-day when informed that her brother was dying.

Baron Lambermont was known as the "Belgian Mentor." His official title was "Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary, Secretary-General of Foreign Affairs." He had been a delegate to all the great international conferences and had acted as arbiter several times, notably between Great Britain and France in the West African disputes concerning the Walther affair, which incident at one time threatened to lead to a very serious contention between the two countries.

In July, 1920, the forty-third anniversary of Baron Lambermont as an official of the Foreign Ministry was celebrated, the King and all the people taking part in the festival.

COULDN'T SEE A PLAY; GETS $100

Mrs. Thomas, Barred from Seats She Had Bought, Awarded Damages Under Theatre Law.

Because Lucy Thomas, a refined and well-to-do negro, and her daughter were not permitted to sit out the Thanksgiving matinee in the box seats she had paid for, she sued Percy G. Williams, of the Circle Theatre, for $100 damages under the law making the exclusion of any orderly person from a theatre a cause of action and limiting the damages to $100. Mrs. Thomas was awarded that sum by Justice McLaughlin in the West Side District Court, and the case has been appealed. It will have a bearing on the suits contemplated by James McComb, the critic who has been excluded from several theatres.

When Mrs. Thomas and her daughter went to the theatre they were told that every seat but three had been sold, and these had been reserved by telephone. Mrs. Thomas asked a man standing by to purchase her seats for her. She got them, and she and her daughter entered. They were escorted to two seats in a box, but soon an usher came and told them they must go to the box office to have their coupons stamped.

Mrs. Thomas says the box-office man, getting possession of her coupons, threw her money at her and refused to allow her to re-enter the theatre.

ALONE, CHILD IS BURNED.

Little One Victim of Mysterious Fire During Mother's Absence.

During a slight fire in the apartments of Joseph Barker, on the third floor of the five-story brick tenement at 31 Montgomery street to-day, Sarah Barker, seven years old, was severely burned about the body. Her mother was absent at the time. The child was taken to the Gouverneur Hospital. The cause of the fire is unknown.

"FOUND."

Odd Notice in Prominent Southern Paper of Interest to New York Residents.

One of the best-known newspapers in the South is the "Guide," of Dunn, N. C. Its publisher, J. P. Pitman, sends us the following clipping with request to publish:

"Found" by the editor of the Guide, a bottle of Hyomel, the wonderful treatment that cures catarrh without stomach dosing. It can speak in highest praise of its remarkable power to cure and relieve catarrh of the head and throat. This mention is made not as an advertisement, but in the interest of those who suffer the torture of that terrible disease, catarrh.

In sending the clipping, Mr. Pitman wrote the following letter:

"I inclose a little piece from my paper, dated to-day. You will see from this that I desire to push the selling of Hyomel as far as possible. I am using it in my own family, and find that it gives the desired relief, so that I take pleasure in spreading the word and the knowledge of this sure relief for catarrh."

Regeman & Co., in preparation for the material trouble of this season of the year, have ordered a large stock of Hyomel, and sell it under guarantee to refund the money if it does not relieve. The complete outfit costs but $1, and extra bottles can be obtained for 50 cents. Ask them to show you the strong guarantee under which they sell it. This remarkable remedy mediates the air you breathe, soothing and healing the mucous membranes of the air passages, and making a complete cure of the worst case of catarrh.

Regeman & Co., The Corporation, 300 Broadway, and all branches. Mail orders filled promptly.

THE TURN OF LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare For It—Two Relate Their Experience.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain. When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, spasms before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inquietude, and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

These symptoms are all just so many calls from nature for help. The nerves are crying out for assistance and the cry should be heeded in time. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system. It has carried thousands of women safely through this crisis.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge. Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I had been suffering with falling of the womb for years and was passing through the change of life. My womb was badly weakened and I was unable to do any work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail."

THE STANDARD AMERICAN ANNUAL.

Among the new leaves turned most numerously and to best purpose in the New Year are those of The World Almanac and Encyclopedia for 1935. In this book, priceless, though sold at a small price, are 590 pages and facts which nobody will ever pretend to count exactly. The pages are brightly legible and the facts are such as have made and maintained The World Almanac an authority national and international in all lines of reference knowledge.

There are new features to the Almanac this year, as there are every year, and old ones are amplified. The stories are told of the past year's progress at home and abroad, of the Russo-Japanese war, of the Panama Canal developments.

Political statistics—those of the recent campaign and all—are brought up to date. The figures of the country's industrial and educational advance are all there. And there are so many things set forth of common and uncommon interest that as a rule whoever looks in the Almanac in the first place has no call to look elsewhere.

It's a wise man or a wise household that, keeping previous editions of The World Almanac all in stock, promptly adds this year's issue to the ready-to-hand library. 25c. on stands. 35c. by mail.
